

Color The Picture:

Abram left his home and had faith that God would bring him to a land that was promised to his children.

